THE CHINESE SITUATION

Russians and English Resting on Their Arms and Situation More Encouraging.

Boers Rejection of Terms of Peace and Troubles at Tien Tsin Very Discouraging.

MAY YET UNDO ENGLAND

The Afternoon Papers are Inclined to be Very Pessimistic Over the Final Outcome

SENSATIONAL RUMOR DISCREDITED

New York, March 20.—(Bulletin)—A Tokio bulletin says: "Russian and Japanese warships are rushing to Korean waters. Movements are very warlike."

Tien Tsin, March 20.—The situation today, after the several ominous looking events of the week, is more encouraging. The Russians and English are resting on their arms and the prospects of a peaceful settlement of the differences are very bright.

NO FIGHTING YET.
London, March 20.—The sensational rumors of fighting between the British and Russians has not been confirmed and is discarded at the foreign offices. No trouble is expected.

PESIMISTIC LONDON.
London, March 20.—The afternoon papers are very pessimistic over both the rejection of peace terms and say that the trouble at Tien Tsin and the Boer war may yet prove England's undoing.

ST. LOUIS FIRE.

St. Louis, March 19.—A fire that originated in the tea house of the Anheuser-Busch brewing company shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday, fanned by a strong wind, spread over a territory six blocks long and two wide, covered by dwellings, lumber yards and repair shops, etc., but because of the dense fall of smoke and the intense heat, which kept the firemen at a distance, it was impossible to see just how much damage the fire had done.

Up to 3 o'clock it was known that the following buildings have been destroyed: tea house of the W. J. Kemp and Anheuser-Busch breweries; lumber yard and repair shops of the Masoumi Car and Foundry company; shops of the Standard Barrel company; Sante Pickle and Vinegar company's plant; three two-story dwellings, five scattered cottages; of the United States engineering department, used for building and repairing barges for Mississippi river work; old stone arsenal, used for the storage of United States army quartermaster's supplies; Southside Hunting and Boating club and several least houses.

Shortly after 3 o'clock the fire was under control, after having burned property estimated in value at $1,000,000, between Zipp street and Utah street on the south and north and Knoch street on the west, to the river. The stone wall at the arsenal stopped the spread of the fire northward.

THE BENTON COURT.
The grand jury at Benton will be discharged tomorrow and although court may last another week, it is thought the cases will all be disposed of by Saturday.

Lar Walters, arrested for a few weeks ago for false swearing, has been indicted by the grand jury.

BUSINESS FAILURE.

Yorkville, N. C., March 20.—John R. Asha, who was president of the York Cotton Mill, which failed yesterday, suicided today by jumping in a well.

WAS HE ROBBED?

ENGINEER JOE DICKE'S DIAMOND RING AND STUD AND POCKETBOOK MISSING.

It is not known where Engineer Joe Dicke's diamond ring, stud and pocketbook are. They were not found on him when the remains were brought to the city. Engineer Dicke had two handsome diamonds and never carried less than $50 with him. He is said to have had at least $75 or $100 only a short time before the accident, probably at Fulton. His watch was taken possession of by the railroad authorities to learn the time of the accident and will be turned over to the family today.

His family hope the valuables were taken by a friend for safekeeping, and will be returned. His diamonds, especially his ring on his finger, could hardly have been lost.

MAYFIELD CUTTING.

ALBERT FRANCIS MAY BE FATALLY WOUNDED—OTHER NEWS

Albert Francis, was seriously, if not fatally cut at the Mayfield factory in Mayfield yesterday by a man named Rogers. The men had a dispute over pressing a pair of pants and it was thought it was settled when Rogers slipped up behind him and stabbed him across the chest.

A petition for pardon is being circulated at Mayfield for David Yates, who was given two years for detaining a woman.

Jim Lawrence, who was arrested for stealing from the Mayfield Woolen Mills, was yesterday indicted by the grand jury at Mayfield.

STREET CARS, TOO!

THEY STRUCK AT A CURVE ABOUT 12:30 TODAY

Cars 50 and 61, on the Rowland town line, had a head-on collision at the curve at Madison and Fourth streets about 12:30 o'clock this afternoon and gave half a dozen passengers a bad scare and good jolting up.

It seemed that one of the motormen "overlooked" his orders and failed to wait at the meeting point on Utterback's switch. They did not discover each other until too late.

No one was hurt, fortunately, and the cars not damaged to amount to anything.

ILLINOIS COUPLE.

PEOPLE FROM SPRINGFIELD MARRIED THIS AFTERNOON.

W. W. Ellis, aged 38, and Mrs. J. E. McFarland, aged 34, of Springfield, Ill., arrived on the St. Louis train this morning and were married this afternoon.

The groom is a farmer, and it is his first marriage. It is her second venture. It is understood they are cousins.

THE TOBACCO MARKET.
About 100 hogheads were sold at today's sales, and there is a splendid demand for all grades. The prices today were slightly advanced.

COLLEGE FEN.
Bellefonte, Pa., March 20.—W. M. Dorworth, a freshman in the state college here, was killed in a three-class fight today.

Budapest, March 20.—Field Marshal, Deszely Zrinyi was fired at on the streets today by discharged soldiers.

MADISONVILLE'S NARROW ESCAPE

Fire Last Night Made Things Look Dangerous for the Town at One Time.

Every Citizen Was Called on to Help Fight the Blaze and Persistence Won.

POPULATION OUT EN MASSE

The Situation Was So Threatening It Was Deemed Necessary to Call on Neighboring Towns.

THE LIST OF DAMAGED PROPERTY

Madisonville, Ky., March 20.—This city has escaped what appeared at one time last night, a destruction of the place. At 7 o'clock a fire was discovered in the Lee Williams tobacco factory occupied by Hinkle and Lancaster, and the fire communicated to adjacent buildings, being fanned by a fierce March wind; at that time the outlook for Madisonville was discouraging in the extreme. The wind blew directly in the direction of the business center. So threatening was the situation it was deemed best to call for help from neighboring cities. Our department was prompt, but was inadequate for handling such a fire. The Williams factory was soon consumed, and one after another adjoining buildings fell before the ruthless flames. The population turned out en masse, and every able-bodied citizen was willing to contribute in any possible way to the saving of exposed property. Nobly did the men of the department do the work before them, but such a fire the most persistent labor of a well trained department supplied with all the necessary appliances could only have stemmed the tide. Most fortunately a short time after the breaking out of the fire, the wind changed its course in an opposite direction, and by this more than anything else, was the city saved from destruction. Buildings destroyed were: Barnes' Cooperage shop, Coleman's cooper shop, Exchange Hotel, Holman's tobacco factory, J. H. Young's residence and warehouse, W. J. Barnes' livery stable, a two story brick residence occupied by negroes, W. B. Smith's residence and warehouse and others. Loss about $10,000, partially insured.

ZENDA CLUB'S DANCE.

The Zenda club's dance at the K. of P. hall last night was very enjoyable, and the following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. James Foster, Misses Luna Lemon, Myrtle Bryant, Carrie Grace, May V. Patterson, Myrtle Gilbert, Anne Street, Messrs. Harry Fisher, Chas. Fisher, Chas. Sprague, Will Epstein, Alvin Barclay, Elvin Thompson, Harry Swain, Roscoe Parryear, Glenn Glenover, Barile Jenkins, Parker Chastaine and E. D. Jones.

DEAN'S BAND NOT AN APPLICANT.

There was talk of Dean's band acting as regimental band for the approaching encampment of state guards, and Prof. Dean was asked to make a bid on furnishing the music. Since then, however, it has been announced that the regimental band must have a drum major, and Dean's band never had one, this lets the band out of the contest.

DEATH IN MARSHALL

AN AGED RESIDENT SUCUMBES TO OLD AGE TODAY

Mr. Campbell Parker, aged 91, died today from old age at his home near Benton, Ky. He was one of the best known residents of Marshall county. His wife died about 10 years ago, but he leaves several children, as follows: Sid Parker, Fulton; Mrs. F. A. Higgs, Marshall county; Dr. Geo. Parker, Arkansas; Mr. John Parker, Texas; W. F. Parker, West.

The funeral will take place at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning at Benton.

WILL RESUME.

MAYFIELD WOOLEN MILLS LOUISVILLE PLANT.

Louisville, March 20.—The Old Kentucky Woolen Mill will resume operations in about three weeks, giving employment to about 350 operatives, who were thrown out of employment when the mill shut down two years ago. The mill has just been purchased by the Mayfield Woolen Mills, of Mayfield, Ky., from Mr. G. W. Tarleton, of Louisville, who bought the mill at auction on February 12.

Mrs. C. G. Warner is quite ill from malarial fever.

POISON BY MISTAKE.

CLOSE CALL OF MRS. GRASTY, WHO TOOK ARSENIC YESTERDAY.

Mrs. Grasty, the venerable mother of the Messrs. Grasty, the grocers, made a mistake yesterday morning at her home on Jefferson, between Fourth and Fifth, which nearly cost her her life. She poured out a dose of what she supposed was jergorine, and in swallowing it discovered a peculiarity in taste which prompted her to more closely examine the bottle. She found that the liquid was a strong solution of arsenic.

Dr. Alvey was hastily summoned, and by the use of the stomach pump saved her life. She soon recovered, but it was a close call.

Mrs. Grasty is about 60 years old, and a highly respected lady.

SYMSONIA NOTES.

Symsonia, March 20.—Mr. W. P. Edmunds had his arm broken last Sunday by falling from a mule.

RODLEGGERS CASE CONTINUED.

Ed Blanton and Walter Lee, of Hickman, Ky., arrested by Deputy United States Marshal Saunders for selling whisky without a government license, were arraigned before United States Commissioner Parryear today, but all the witnesses not having arrived, it was continued indefinitely.

OFFRAY.

LAND SLASH-JAW BY OTHER.

Wm. Riley, Chas. Warren, Chas. Craft and Thomas Anderson, four tramps who said they had been working in a mill in Alabama, were lodged in jail at Metropolis yesterday for robbing J. W. Perkins of 25 cents, his two shirts and even the shoes from his feet.

GRATEFUL TRAMP.

STOLE A COAT AND IT WAS MADE A PRESENT TO HIM.

Judge Sanders Makes the Presentation Speech—One Other Petty Larceny Case.

Paul Oronenthal, a rather nice-looking tramp who said his home was in Philadelphia, was arrested last night for stealing an overcoat from a West End home.

He took the coat after receiving hospitality at the house. The owner, however, did not desire to prosecute. The prisoner informed the court this morning that he was cold and without money, and seeing the coat concluded he needed it worse than the owner and confiscated it.

Judge Sanders received word from the owner during court in please present the coat, which was quite a good one, to the tramp, and tell him it was hoped he would derive comfort from it.

The judge handed the coat over to the prisoner, made the presentation speech, and told him to go and sin no more.

The unfortunate fellow accepted it with good grace and walked out a free man.

The only other case on the docket was against Winston Bonds, colored, charged with stealing a bride. There was no evidence against him and he was acquitted, claiming that he found the bride.

Next case.
Little Willie—Papa, who is the best man at a wedding?

Mr. Heanypeck—The best man is the chap who sees the other fellow get the worst of it, my son—Smart Set.

DEAD DUCK

The Dispatch at Louisville, After Much Staggering Suspends Publication Today.

LIABILITIES ARE $75,000

Morehead Ky. Has a Fire Last Night That Came Near Destroying the Whole Town.

ENGLISH STEAMER GOES DOWN AT SEA

Louisville, March 21.—The Daily Dispatch suspended publication today. The liabilities of the company are seventy-five thousand dollars with assets of thirty thousand. The Dispatch has been in bad shape financially for some time and the failure comes as no surprise. The paper was started several years ago as an organ for the silver wing of the Democratic party and to offset the Haldeman papers. For the past few years however it had been out of line with the majority of its party.

ANOTHER BAD FIRE.

Morehead, Ky., March 21.—The entire town of Morehead was threatened with destruction for two hours last night by fire, but after hard work the blaze was gotten under control. The damage was three stores, two offices, one residence, and a barber shop burned to the ground. The loss is estimated at fifteen thousand dollars.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT SEA.

Antwerp, March 21.—Reports just in that the English steamer Tio was sunk in a collision today and fifteen of the crew lost their lives. Full reports are not yet in.

Miss Ellen N. is quite sprightly in her old days.

LITERARY NOTES.

"The Moon Maiden" and "The Curio Dealer" are new pieces by Richard Carle.

"The Country Judge," a new pastoral play by Alice B. Lee and Jerome Kiddy, will be produced in New York next March.

Friends of Robert Buchanan have formed a committee for the purpose of raising a fund for the maintenance of the author, who is no longer able to work.

"Richard Mansfield's Acting Edition of Shakespeare's King Henry V." will soon be published. It is understood that Mr. Mansfield's arrangement of the play is based chiefly upon Rolle's edition of Shakespeare.

Dr. Winthrop R. North Stone, president of Purdue university, Lafayette, Ind., is only 35 years old. Prior to his selection as president he had been vice president for eight years. He is a graduate of the Massachusetts Agricultural college and took a post-graduate course at Göttingen.

Among books a tale recently written by Edward Perry Warren is called "The Prince Who Did Not Exist." It concerns a prince in a fairy book who was in the most doleful straits because he had fallen in love with a real young lady who was not in the book, whereby she was prevented from expressing even a slither interest in him.

Longest Third-Rail Road. Heavy cars, each holding sixty passengers, tra cled easily thirty-seven miles in one hour over the Albany and Hudson Electric railway, at the formal opening, recently. The road is interesting in that it is the longest "third rail" road in the world, and, although an experiment, it seems to be a perfect success.

BROOKLYN.

NEWS FROM OUR NEIGHBOR
ACROSS THE WAY.

Brooklyn, March 15.—The board of education announces that there will be no change of teachers the coming season. This is received as glad tidings by the citizens of this place, as the schools of all are the one thing of which every man, woman and child, seems proud and cannot speak in too high terms. It was hard to find a child at the close of school, that did not seem they had lost their best friend, and none was sure he could reconcile himself outside.
However, it may not be generally known that Prof. Whittenberry, in the commencement outlined a three year course for the Brooklyn high school, and the ten week summer normal school term will be kept on the same lines.

Considerable interest is being taken in the approaching spring election for president and trustees, etc., and on account of the question of appointing the marshal instead of electing one.

The village board has been considering the proposition of purchasing a fire engine and organizing a fire company. With such equipment there will be no safer place in the United States to live or do business. You can sleep with your doors open and the wind in the alley and wake up as rich in the morning as when you retired.

And Georgia McGhee, a pioneer
resident of Brooklyn, is very ill.

Thompson Russell and Mack Corn started for White river country in Arkansas today to engage in the timber business.

Carnegie, the great iron king, had and has aspirations to be an editor.

ADJUDGED INSANE.

MRS. MARY E. SNIPES OR-DERED TO THE HOPKINS-VILLE ASYLUM.

Mrs. Mary E. Snipes, aged 48, was tried before County Judge Tully this morning in the county court on a charge of insanity and adjudged of unsound mind, and ordered to the Hopkinsville asylum. Mr. Miles Fattrell was deputed to take her.

She is a widow, and went crazy about ten years ago when her husband ran away with another woman from the city. She was released about four years ago and has now become insane again, and at times cannot be controlled.

The following poem was written by a charming Paducah maiden, not by any means an old maid, and was published in the Denton Tribune:

AN OLD BACHELOR'S DREAMS.

Dedicated to the bachelor of the Denton Seminary.
A beaming smile, a countenance
bright,
With a wealth of hair as black as night
Two rows of teeth as white as pearls,
Like a rose leaf, which slightly curls
A face more fair than the lilies that grow,
Of times reflected by red popples, I know.

Eyes that were windows of a soul so pure,
Were framed in silk lashes which enticed back, I'm sure,
A brow broad and white, too plain must be seen
The throne of intellect which, indeed, must be known.

Her voice was like music which floats
on the air
Of a balmy summer midnight, when all nature's fair,
Notes clear as a nightingale, yet soft
as a dove,
Divine as an angel wafted down
from above.

I saw she was perfect and felt in her feet;
Implored her to wed me, my life make complete,
She gazed in compassion on my plead-
ings so vain,
And in her dark eyes was written "refusal" too plain.

Then, in one short moment, I realized
the truth,
My "ideal" I had found of my long perished youth.

Could I, who was sought for, be rejected at last?
Who had flirted and flirted a score of times,
Mothers had been chafing for daughters' dear sake, Dannels had blushed when their hands I would take,
I stretched forth my arms in passionate appeal:
"I beg you, fair maiden, life's paradise to seal."

My eyes grew dim, a phantom she seemed,
A mere vision of bright colors like I often had dreamed.
I clutched at her wildly: "Pray stay
yet awhile;
Love, oh! love of my heart, life's darkness beguile!"

"Be queen of my lower, my own darling wife,
Be an angel to guide me through earth's cares and strife."

A face full of laughter now upward was turned,
And waved no adieu—my proposal
was spurned.

Like a fairy she glided, quick out of my sight,
And leaving after her rashly I awoke
with a fright:
'Twas a bright golden dream of my
ideal love,
Who stole to me gently in my dreams
from above.

Like Luna's faithless rays she left me here to weep, Praying but again to see her vision in my sleep.

AN OLD MAID IN PADUCAH.

Oldtime country reformers have started an anti-liquor campaign.

The Golden Age is the GOLD DUST Age

that emancipates women of all ages from the tyranny of hard housework. GOLD DUST Washing Powder is the greatest boon of the century to woman, since it lightens her heaviest work. Large package is greatest economy.

OUT OF THE GINGER JAR.

FORESIGHT.

Come, take a day off; don't you see
It freshens body, mind and heart?
But that you may be truly free
Do two days' work before you start.

GETTING TONED UP.

Two simple things will banish care
afar,
As all the world may plainly see:
A man finds solace in a good cigar
And woman in a cup of tea.

CONFESSION NOT NECESSARY.

"Why have humorists never organized into clubs?"
"Because the law doesn't require any man to incriminate himself."

THIS FASHIONING WAY.

"I wish I had that skirt which owns me."
"Why don't you ask him for it?"
"I'm afraid to go near him for fear he'll borrow more money of me."

HOW FINE DAYS COME ON.

Oh, what an angel is jayous spring!
A rush, a murmur, and she's in the ring.
March is made of many weeks
the day dawning with the daisies.
Making, next day, a sheaf of
At the foot of, good-bye eyes.

SUNSHINE MOONSHINE.

A most little speech was gotten off at a banquet held here recently. The banquet was not at all temperance, however, and there were several incidental would have roused Mrs.
Nation to righteous anger. There were a number of young fellows present, and unfortunately before the toasts were made one of those who was not a comedian to behave decorously. In fact, several speechmakers were interrupted by a young man from the audience to the effect "Let a little sunshine in."

At last one man responded to a toast and commented: "I would suggest to my young friends who are in favor of letting in a little sunshine not to let in a little moonshine at the same time."—Louisville Commercial.

ON THE FINE LINE.

A Chicago merchant of experience places more stress on the constancy of the advertiser than on the striking character of the advertisement. He declares that "the ad" that is always on the firing line, through thick and thin, in season and out of season, is the "ad" that will win its share of the division of trade. The "ad" that is run at intervals need enter the lists each time as a new competitor."—

GRAND LODGE.

ARRANGEMENTS BEING MADE TO ENTERTAIN MEMBERS OF THE GOLDEN CROSS.

Hope and Banner commanderies,
Golden Cross, held a joint meeting last night in Campbell building to arrange for the grand lodge meeting here on April 14th. Seventy-five delegates are expected and the lodge will be in session but one day.

The executive committee to make the necessary arrangements and appoint sub-committees is as follows: C.
B. Hatfield, J. L. Powell, J. H. Barnett, J. Henry Wilson, W. N. Warren, Chas. Hart and Al Young.

The committee will meet with the McChesnut commandery Monday night, and members of it will be so-llicitous to serve on the committee.

New officers will be elected by the grand lodge, which is to hold its meeting in Campbell building, and they will be installed in the evening by Supreme Commander F. I. Day, of the supreme lodge of the United States, who will be in attendance. Besides the supreme commander several other distinguished guests will be present, including Supreme Keeper of Records W. H. Cooper of Knoxville, Tenn., Supreme Medical Director John
D. Young, of Boston, and Supreme Treasurer John D. Swain, of Nassau,
New Hampshire.

After the installation a big banquet will be served in the lodge and anteroom.

DUELLIST EXPELLED.

SWITZERLAND. AUTHORITIES
WONT ALLOW SUICIDE.

Lansanne, Switzerland, March 15.—
The government authorities have issued an order prohibiting the duel and expelling the French duellists Dermode and Boffett, who expected to fight here today.

GENESEE'S LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, March 15.—Louisville's response to the appeal of stricken Cloverport has been immediate. Within four hours after the time the first news of the unfortunate state of affairs had been received a relief train was on the way to the scene bearing supplies.

The sending of the train was followed by a citizens' meeting at the board of trade, where steps were taken to collect further aid. A depot will be established at 30 West Main street and it is believed that by tomorrow sufficient supplies will have been collected to send a big quantity.

In the case of the city of St. Louis vs. the city of Chicago in the drainage canal litigation the supreme court has decided that the case be submitted to a jury. Such a proceeding is almost without precedent.

MANY PRISONERS.

THERE ARE NOW 61 IN THE COUNTY JAIL. MOST AWAITING TRIAL.

Deputy Jailer Tom Everts now has under his charge in the county jail 61 prisoners, most of whom are awaiting trial. There are seldom this many in at one time, but court will commence next month, and a great many of them will doubtless be sent to the penitentiary.

The jail is clean and in the best of possible condition, which reflects great credit on Jailer Miller and Deputy Everts.

TO GET GUNBOAT.

CITIZENS WILL MAKE AN ef-FORT TO HAVE THE RAN-CROFT COME HERE.

A movement is on foot to have the U. S. gunboat Bancroft, which has been ordered to Memphis for the Confederate Veterans' reunion the latter part of May, come to Paducah. It is thought that by exerting the proper effort the concerted action of citizens will have the desired result, and the gunboat, in addition to being quite an attraction to the people here, will draw a large crowd from the surrounding country.

It is desired to bring the boat here during the Elk's carnival, the date of which will not conflict with the Confederate reunion.

CLOVERPORT RECEIVING ASSISTANCE.

Cloverport, March 15.—The town is settling down calmly and the destructive fire of yesterday is taken philosophically. There has been much suffering attending the great loss of homes and property, but relief supplies are coming in rapidly. Two improvised stores have opened and depots for the distribution of supplies have been established.

BEAGAN HARE SHOW.

Lexington, Ky., March 15.—During the Knights Templars' convocation here, May 14 to 16, there is to be an interstate show of Belgian hares. Silver cup, gold medals and money prizes will be given. Col. G. W. Bain, of this city, president of the Bluegrass Belgian Hare Breeders' association, owns about twenty five head.

KENTUCKIAN DIES.

IN GEORGIA.
Stanford, Ky., March 15.—James H. Gentry, of this place, died this morning at Thomasville, Ga., where he had gone for his health. The remains will be buried here tomorrow.
Mrs. Eliza H. Gentry, sister of the deceased, was with him.

NEEDY HIGHWAYMEN.

GRATEFUL TRAMP.

STOLE A COAT AND IT WAS MADE A PRESENT TO HIM.

Judge Sanders Makes the Presentation Speech—One Other Petty Larceny Case.

Paul Cronenthal, a rather nice-looking tramp who said his home was in Philadelphia, was arrested last night for stealing an overcoat from a West End home.
He took the coat after receiving hospitality at the house. The owner, however, did not desire to prosecute. The prisoner informed the court this morning that he was cold and without money, and seeing the coat concluded he needed it worse than the owner and confiscated it.
Judge Sanders received word from the owner during court to please present the coat, which was quite a good one, to the tramp, and tell him it was hoped he would derive comfort from it.
The judge handed the coat over to the prisoner, made the presentation speech, and told him to go and sit no more.
The unfortunate fellow accepted it with good grace and walked out a free man.
The only other case on the docket was against Winston Bond, colored, charged with stealing a bribe. There was no evidence against him and he was acquitted, claiming that he found the bribe.

The Dispatch at Louisville, After Much Staggering Suspends Publication Today.

Morehead Ky. Has a Fire Last Night That Came Near Destroying the Whole Town.

ENGLISH STEAMER GOES DOWN AT SEA

Louisville, March 21.—The Daily Dispatch suspended publication today. The liabilities of the company are seventy-five thousand dollars with assets of thirty thousand. The Dispatch has been in bad shape financially for some time and the failure comes as no surprise. The paper was started several years ago as an organ for the silver wing of the Democratic party and to offset the Haldeman papers. For the past few years however it had been out of line with the majority of its party.

ANOTHER BAD FIRE.

Morehead, Ky., March 21.—The entire town of Morehead was threatened with destruction for two hours last night by fire, but after hard work the blaze was gotten under control. The damage was three stores, two offices, one residence, and a barber shop burned to the ground. The loss is estimated at fifteen thousand dollars.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT SEA.

PADUCAH:

Concerning News of a Local Nature for Past Week.

From Friday's Sun.

Mr. A. G. Huddle, Sr., aged 74 one of Paducah's oldest citizens died at 3:30 o'clock this morning at his home on South Fourth street from asthma, after a long illness.

The deceased was born in Kentucky, and had been a resident of Paducah for forty years or more. He was a worthy citizen, highly respected by all who knew him, and leaves two children to mourn his loss, Mr. A. Huddle, Jr., and Mrs. Frank Huddle. The funeral will take place at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon burial at Oak Grove.

Mr. John Rehkopf, accompanied by Dr. Amsos and nurse, was taken to Louisville at 1:30 this morning to undergo a fourth operation. Prof. Amsos will perform it. Mr. E. Rehkopf, his father, went up yesterday to make arrangements. Mr. Rehkopf has had several attacks of appendicitis.

Suit has been filed in the circuit court by Florence Worthington against Mary Overley. Both are heirs to the late Jerry Lee, and the petition is a friendly action for the partition of his estate, one lot of ground in the city.

In the Illinois Central wreck at Morefield Junction Ed Coolidge, a colored fireman, had one rib broken, right arm lamed, and sustained internal injuries. Jordan Taylor, a colored brakeman, suffered a dislocation of his right shoulder. Both were removed to Fort Jefferson for medical attention. Engine 608 was thrown crosswise of the track by the slide-swipe. Twelve cars loaded with freight were totally demolished. The loss will reach thousands of dollars.

The contract for the new opera house chairs was let at noon today to H. Andrews & Co., of Chicago, the price being about $9,000.

There are two more contracts to let, one for the carpets and one for the electric wiring.

The Mayfield Elks are to celebrate their first anniversary on the 27th inst., and will give a big banquet to 300 or more at the Southern hotel.

MARSHAL SUED IN TRIGG.

Caliz, March 15.—Attorney Robert Trigg has filed suit in the Trigg circuit court for Ben Westler, colored, against City Marshal Howard Dillard, of Groves, for $200 damages. Westler lives near Tuleburg, and states in his petition that in February last Dillard, acting as city marshal of Groves, came into Trigg county without authority of law and arrested him and brought him to Caliz, where he was placed in jail with felons and other prisoners; that Dillard refused to permit him to give bond, and for said unlawful arrest and imprisonment on the part of Dillard and two

FOR ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.

Caliz, March 15.—W. M. Ethridge will be tried here tomorrow for the alleged attempted assassination of Joe Ballard, a well known farmer residing near here, Monday. He was fired at from behind a hay stack, and a lead of buckshot struck his right arm, so mangleing it that amputation was necessary. An old grudge over family affairs is the supposed cause of the attempt to take Ballard's life.

EFFORTS MADE TO "HOLD UP" THE METROPOLIS HERALD.

The Metropolis Herald force is greatly perturbed over an anonymous communication, saying that if $1,000 in a sack isn't left at Fort Massac for the writers, the office will be blown up with dynamite at 8 o'clock tonight.

The "Two Strangers" signed to it give as an excuse that they don't like what the paper has been saying. It will be known tonight whether the letter is a joke or the product of some crank. It made a good item for the Herald, at any rate.

FATAL WOUND

From Thursday's Daily.

Capt. Hardman Robinson, of Fulton, Ky., who was shot at Fulton, on Thursday night, February 21st, at 3 o'clock this morning in the Illinois Central hospital here, where he had been since the fatal night of the tragedy.

Capt. Robinson had been improving slowly up to 11 o'clock last night when he took a turn for the worse, and a hemorrhage caused death about 3 o'clock.

The facts in the tragedy are well known. Smith was drunk, and had had a fight with him and been whipped by him. Smith says he stumbled and the bullet went off accidentally.

In crossing the "Y" Capt. Robinson was shot. He stated here at the hospital soon after he was brought here that he did not know Smith was around and had never had any trouble with him. Smith says he stumbled and the bullet went off accidentally.

The bullet entered Capt. Robinson's right shoulder four inches under the collar bone and one and one-quarter inches from the arm pit. The ball ranged downward and came out at the middle of the second-third of the shoulder.

Capt. Robinson's aunt, Mrs. Green Feltz, had spent a great deal of time with him since he had been here, and there was much interest continually manifested in his condition by the people of Fulton.

He was a young man about 21 years of age and had lived in Fulton four or five years. He was a son of Mr. H. W. Robinson, of near Murray, Ky., and one of the most prominent young men in Fulton. He has been connected with the Illinois Central railroad as night clerk ever since he has been a resident of Fulton, with the exception of two years' service in the Philippines with the First Tennessee volunteers. After being honorably discharged from the army he returned to Fulton and took up his old profession. A few weeks ago a company of state guard was organized and all the members turned to him for their captain. He was unanimously selected and proved a good, active worker. He left many true friends and few enemies, if any, and was a favorite among the boys.

Smith's preliminary trial was set for March 15th, and was released on a $2,500 bond.

It is understood that Smith was released at Fulton this morning on a charge of murder, and will not be allowed to leave until possibly after the examining trial.

Mr. L. O. Feltz, uncle of the deceased, and Miss Fern Clark, Captain Robinson's fiancée, and her brother, arrived at noon.

The remains were shipped over the N. O. and St. L. at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon for Murray for burial. Captain Robinson was an Old Fellow. His uncle and aunt and others accompanied the remains.

The funeral of the late Captain Hardman Robinson, of Fulton, who died in the railroad hospital here yesterday morning from a wound inflicted by Ed Smith, at Fulton, February 21, took place at Murray, his former home, today.

Lieutenant Percy Howey and the following members of the Murray guards, the Fulton military company of which the deceased member was captain, came up this morning at 1:20 and left on the 7 o'clock train for Murray to attend the funeral.

A BIG BLAZE

Cloverport, Ky., March 14.—Cloverport was visited by a big blaze last night that leaves the town in a terribly crippled condition and will cause a lot of suffering. It started about 11 o'clock, originating in the residence of A. Oelz, and burned until 4:30 this morning. It was caused by the explosion of a natural gas pipe. For awhile it seemed that the entire town would be destroyed and outside assistance from Owensboro, Henderson and Evansville was called for. The Evansville fire company responded, but it arrived too late to be of much service.

The amount of the loss will foot up a half million dollars. Six blocks of buildings on Main, the principal street, were totally destroyed, only one store, the Fair, escaping from the devouring flames. Fifty people are homeless and short of provisions. Outside assistance is coming in generously, Frankfort sending the first donation, a lot of tents.

The following buildings were destroyed by the fire: The Methodist and Presbyterian churches, the Breckinridge News office, the Breckinridge bank, nine residences, twelve stores, several small offices and two large tobacco steamers. The latter are the property of the American Tobacco company.

BOND SUIT

From Friday's Sun.

The over-the-river bonds, of which there are 100 of $1,000 each, will now spring again into public notice, and their validity, about which very little has been heard since soon after the city repudiated them nearly three years ago, will be tested in the courts.

Today in the United States court Otto Witzell, trustee under the will of Zeb E. Witzell, deceased, of St. Louis, filed suit against the city of Paducah for the accrued interest on coupons on 21 of the $1,000 bonds since the time the city defaulted on them, the amount being $2,912.50, with interest at six per cent.

It seems that 25 of these bonds were owned by Mr. Witzell, deceased, and his heirs have now brought suit to enforce the payment of the interest on the coupons, which the city has refused to pay for about three years.

Necessarily the federal court will have to pass on the validity of the bonds themselves in deciding the question of whether or not the city must pay the interest on them.

These bonds, it will be remembered, are the $100,000 issued by the city to get the railroad from across the river to come into Paducah and after paying interest on them for several years suddenly discovered an apparent technicality which the city at once used to prevent the city from legally paying the interest any longer. The city is now involved in one suit over the same bonds. Roberts & Co., of New York, who had a contract to refund the bonds, sued the city for $10,000 damages for breach of contract in failing to furnish the refunding bonds as agreed and the case is still pending in the federal court.

The outcome of the suit filed today will be watched with a great deal of interest, as the city's liability on $100,000 in bonds and interest is involved in the case, as well as the city's commercial integrity.

A majority of the people seem to be in favor of paying the bonds, whether the city can be made to pay them or not.

Campbell & Campbell are the attorneys.

This suit is a test suit, and probably a forerunner of several to follow.

DEATH'S VICTIM

Indianapolis, March 14.—General Benjamin Harrison died at 4:45 yesterday afternoon without regaining consciousness. His death was quiet and painless, there being a gradual sinking until the end came, which was unmarked by a single gasp for breath as life left the body.

The relatives with a few exceptions and several of his old and tried friends were at the bedside when he passed away.

None of General Harrison's children was present at his death. Neither Colonel Russell Harrison nor Mrs. McKee had reached the city, although they were hurrying on their way.

The group at the bedside included Mrs. Harrison, W. H. H. Miller, Samuel Miller, his son, the Rev. M. L. Haines, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, which General Harrison had attended for so many years, Secretary Tillet, Mrs. Jamison and Dorsey, Col. Randall, sergeant-at-arms of the United States senate, and a close personal friend of the dead president, and the two nurses, who have been in constant attendance at the bedside. General Harrison's two sisters and an aunt were also present.

Mrs. Harrison knelt at the side of the bed, her husband's right hand grasping hers, while Dr. Jamison held the left hand of the dying man, counting the feeble pulse beats. In a few minutes after the friends had been summoned to the room, the end came. Dr. Jamison announcing the sad fact. The silence was broken by the voice of Dr. Haines raised in prayer, mingled with the sob of the mourners.

One of the most pathetic incidents of the general's illness occurred Tuesday before he became unconscious. His little Elizabeth was brought into the sick room for a few moments to see her father, and offered him a small apple pie which she herself had made. General Harrison smiled his recognition of the child and her gift, but the effort to speak was too much, and he could do nothing more to express his appreciation.

According to the funeral plans, General Harrison's remains will lie in state at the state capital next Saturday, and the funeral will occur Sunday.

Indianapolis, March 14.—Thousands of messages of condolence were received by Mrs. Harrison today from every part of the country. The president and ex-president Cleveland sent very sympathetic notes, and both of them will attend the funeral which will occur Sunday.

CLEVELAND MOVED BY THE SAD INTELLIGENCE

Princeton, N. J., March 14.—Former President Cleveland last night made the following statement on the death of ex-President Harrison: "I am exceedingly moved by the sad intelligence of Mr. Harrison's death, for notwithstanding the late discouraging reports of his condition, I hoped his life might yet be spared. Not one of our countrymen should for a moment fail to realize the services which have been performed in their behalf by the distinguished dead. In high public offices he was guided by patriotism and devotion to duty, often at the sacrifice of temporary popularity, and in private life, his influence and example was always in the direction of decency and good citizenship."

PRESIDENT TO ATTEND FUNERAL

Washington, March 14.—President McKinley will attend the funeral of Gen. Harrison. He will leave for Indianapolis probably tomorrow night, although the exact time of departure has not yet been determined definitely. It is not expected that any of the members of the cabinet will go.

Tonight the president sent a telegram of condolence to Mrs. Harrison.

STOLE A COAT AND IT WAS MADE A PRESENT TO HIM.

Judge Sanders Makes the Presentation Speech—One Other Petty Larceny Case.

Paul Crenshaw, a rather nice-looking tramp who said his home was in Philadelphia, was arrested last night for stealing an overcoat from a West End home.

He took the coat after receiving hospitality at the house. The owner, however, did not desire to prosecute. The prisoner informed the court this morning that he was cold and without money, and seeing the coat concluded he needed it worse than the owner and confiscated it.

Judge Sanders received word from the owner during court to please present the coat, which was quite a good one, to the tramp, and tell him it was hoped he would derive comfort from it.

The judge handed the coat over to the prisoner, made the presentation speech, and told him to go and sin no more.

The unfortunate fellow accepted it with good grace and walked out a free man.

The only other case on the docket was against Winston Bonis, colored, charged with stealing a trifle. There was no evidence against him and he was acquitted, claiming that he found the trifle.

Louisville, March 21.—The Daily Dispatch suspended publication today. The liabilities of the company are seventy-five thousand dollars with assets of thirty thousand. The Dispatch has been in bad shape financially for some time and the failure comes as no surprise. For the past few years however it had been out of line with the majority of its party.
